

PRESS RELEASE

Burgundy to represent Begell House throughout the United Kingdom and Europe

Oxford, UK, 8th December 2009

Burgundy Information Services continues to develop its portfolio of STM focused e-publishing partners by signing an agreement to represent Begell House Inc. throughout the United Kingdom and Europe. Burgundy will promote the Begell House suite of innovative journals, books and databases through a number of different sales channels to bring this valuable content to academic, corporate and government institutions throughout the region.

"Begell House Inc. is very pleased to be working with Burgundy Information Services." commented Mike Walsh, President at Begell House. "Burgundy staff are experienced in selling STM content into our target segments and they provide excellent post-sales service. These are important attributes for us as we look to establish a sound foundation for our digital platform, the Begell Digital Library."

Begell House publishes titles that provide the latest research data and information across a broad spectrum of engineering and sciences. With titles in heat and mass transfer, multiphase systems, fluid dynamics, computational chemical and medical sciences and applications, Begell House is a premium source of research data and information in all areas of science, medicine, and technology.

The Begell Digital Library (BDL) is a comprehensive, full-text database providing the latest research data and information across a broad spectrum of engineering and biomedical sciences and applied works. BDL contains 32 professional peer-reviewed journals, major engineering references, International Centre for Heat & Mass Transfer conference proceedings, eBooks and more.
